Report Summary 2017-2018

Average Percentage of Teachers undergoing face to face faculty development programme

The main philosophy behind establishment of Human Resource Development Center is to provide adequate opportunities for the professional development of teachers in higher education system which is ever expanding. These centers are seen as inbuilt mechanisms to provide opportunities for teachers within the framework of knowledge, society, values, motivation and art of teaching. Secondly, the knowledge explosion worldwide in the recent past has been phenomenal. It is impossible to cope up with the vast generation of new information, technology and methods without resorting to accelerated and organized mode of continuing education.

The need for attending the Faculty Development Programme has emerged because our Teacher Training Programmes were framed by keeping the teacher at center of all activities in a teaching learning process with the view to inculcate the following qualities.

- a) A critical understanding of the added value of learning networks and collaborations within and between countries and communities.
- b) An ability to participate effectively in open and flexible learning environment both as a learner and as a tutor.
- c) An ability to create learning networks that bring added values to the professional development of teachers.
- d) Contribute to the cause of life-long learning.

IQAC takes considerable effort to ensure the participation of the staff in training programmes such as orientation courses for newly inducted staff, refresher courses and other faculty development programmes. The Government of Maharashtra approves only those faculty development courses run by UGC-

HRDC and other national agencies. Leave is sanctioned for attending the courses offered by the HRDC only.

Secondly, the knowledge explosion worldwide in the recent past has been phenomenal. It is impossible to cope up with the vast generation of new information, technology and methods without resorting to accelerated and organized mode of continuing education.

The need for attending the Faculty Development Programme has emerged because our Teacher Training Programmes were framed by keeping the teacher at center of all activities in a teaching learning process with the view to inculcate the following qualities.

- a) A critical understanding of the added value of learning networks and collaborations within and between countries and communities.
- b) An ability to participate effectively in open and flexible learning environment both as a learner and as a tutor.
- c) An ability to create learning networks that bring added values to the professional development of teachers.
- d) Contribute to the cause of life-long learning.

IQAC takes considerable effort to ensure the participation of the staff in training programmes such as orientation courses for newly inducted staff, refresher courses and other faculty development programmes. The Government of Maharashtra approves only those faculty development courses run by UGC-HRDC and other national agencies. Leave is sanctioned for attending the courses offered by the HRDC only.
